Colonel James Kilbourne Democratic Candidate for Governor.

Why he Should be Elected.

He is generally recognized by those acquainted with him as a broad-minded humanitarian and a true friend to labor, and this he shows, first, by being foremost in the community in every work looking to the betterment of humanity, as is instanced in founding and presidency of the Children's Hospital and of the Neighborhood Guild, his work for the establishment of public reading rooms, organization of the Cuban League of which he was president, and other works of like nature too numerous to mention; secondly, by his treatment of the workmen, as evidenced in sending them all to the World's Fair at Chicago free of charge, and in the annual picnics for the men, their families and friends, in which all the expenses of transportation, music, decoration, amusements and refreshments are borne by the company; his care for the injured and sick employees whom he never fails to visit at such times, in addition to seeing that they have every comfort and medical attention, with continuance of pay if due to accident in the shops; in the sending of old and faithful employees to health resorts to recuperate at the expense of the company; in the granting of two weeks' leave with pay to clerical employees and a half-day every Saturday to the workmen during the three summer months; by the fact that in thirty years he never had a strike or clash with his employees and never reduced wages during the hard times, but voluntarily increased them without solicitation a number of times at a cost to the company of many thousands of dollars; and the further fact that his employees presented him with a silver set as a token of their affection and esteem for him, while the estimation in which he is held by organized labor is shown by his election as honorary member of the Columbus Trades Labor Assembly, and Columbus Building and Trades Council and the presentation by these bodies jointly representing organized labor in Columbus of an engrossed set of resolutions tendering him their heartfelt thanks for his noble defense of their rights in instance too numerous to mention. Is any better evidence needed of his care for the rights of the workman and their regards for him? And bear in mind that his record in this respect is of no recent date, but this extends back over a quarter of a century.

His army record is first class, he having entered the army as a private and rising through the various ranks, in which he rendered distinguished services, was mustered out as a brevet Colonel.

He is a man of high scholarly attainments, a graduate of Kenton College and the Harvard Law School, while he is a recognized authority on questions of political economy.

His success as a practical business man, as a president and general manager of the Kilbourne and Jacobs Manufacturing Company, one of the largest establishments in the state, and the fact that he has been president of the Columbus Board of Trade and the president of the Ohio Centennial Commission is sufficient evidence of his capacity for public affairs. Under his able and intelligent management the centennial anniversary of Ohio promised to be worthy of the great state, had not the enterprise been abandoned.

Though never a candidate for office, he has always taken an active interest in politics and has represented his party time and again in State and National Convention, while he always contributes liberally to the cause of Democracy with his voice, pen and purse.

It was only after the most urgent insistence upon the part of his friends, and the election of a delegation in his interest in Franklin County, that he finally consented to become a candidate for Governor two years ago, receiving the second highest vote for the nomination, and afterwards devoting himself unreservedly to working for the success of the ticket in that campaign.

Again in 1901, he only consented that his friends might use his name in connection with the gubernatorial nomination.

In short, he is a cultured gentleman of exceptional ability, and would make an ideal Governor.

Misses Wells of the Nelsonville Buckeye were pleasant guests of friends here Sunday.

The Pension Roll.

Thirty-six years after the close of the civil war the pension list records the highest number of pensioners and the highest amount paid to them. The pensioners of all kinds number 997,735, or virtually one million. Of these 736,318 are survivors of the civil war, and 228,913 are widows of soldiers of that conflict. Pending claims number 403,599, of which 252,740 are on account of the civil war, 24,206 being "accrued" or original claims, and 228,334 being applications for increase of pensions already granted. No estimate has been made of the survivors of the domestic strife in addition to the 760,645 who draw and who have applied for pension money.

Twenty years ago it was announced that the pension list had reached its highest number, and must thenceforth decline; yet last year's payment (year ending June 30, 1901) reached $138,501,483. There were added to the list in that year 47,792 names, while the losses by death and otherwise numbered 43,586. The first payment (arrears) last year amounted to $9,937,703. In recent years the average first payment has been $1,509,000 in the 111 years since July 1, 1790, the Government has paid in pensions $2,763,350,033, of which $2,666,904,389 has been paid since July 1, 1865. Before another Presidential election the total will reach $3,000,000,000. The number of pensioners on account of the war with Spain is 5,604, of whom 2,049 are widows. They received last year $1,175,225. The pending claims on account of that war number 33,582. The largest class of pensioners is that which come under the act of July 27, 1890, as follows: 104,834 draw $6 a month; 138,293 draw $8 a month; 38,452 draw $10 a month, and 150,217 draw $12 a month. There has also been a great demand for widow's pensions, owing to the amendment (May, 1901) of the act of June, 1890, by which a widow with an income of $250 a year (instead of $96) may apply for a pension. On the rolls there is still the name of one survivor of the war of 1812 and 1,527 widows of that war. Of the Mexican war there are 7,568 pensioned survivors and 8,109 widow pensioners. The average yearly pension payments during Grant's first term were $29,034,060 (total $116,136,275), and during McKinley's first term $140,000,137 (total $560,000,347).

The Trades Assembly of Columbus, are certainly doing much harm to organized labor, by a recent proceeding, declaring against a lawyer, who took employment in a case in which the "Assembly" assumed to have a sympathetic interest. These are indeed high times, when we have rule by Intemperance and boycott by Resolution. When the lawyer can not take a case, and a doctor can not administer to a patient, or an editor publish news, until he has a court to say he will not enjoin or an Assembly to permit the practice of his profession, "Imperialism" of the mob and the autocrat then indeed is more vicious than that of the Czars or of the Caesars.

Mr. Isaac Mathias, as executor, will sell at the late residence of Ed. S. Mathias near Enterprise on Tuesday, Sept. 10th a lot of stock, farm products and farm utensils. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock.

The Situation and Relation.

An old time subscriber asks us to tell him our relation with the people of our newly acquired possessions. Recently it was announced that all the mongrels of the Sandwich Islands are made citizens. A movement is on foot to admit the Chinese.

In the news columns and editorial columns the attitude of this government toward Cuba and Porto Rico has been discussed for months, almost for years. Nothing definite has yet been done except to maintain a provisional government for Cuba. Porto Rico is now looked upon as United States territory in which the people are not permitted to vote or have any voice in the affairs of their government. It is more like a colony and subjectation with the object of ultimate pseudo slavery than the spirit of fairness and justice which this Government claimed to be exercising when we went to war with Spain to free Cuba.

The Republican party now in power, will make the barbarians of all these acquired provinces, citizens, on the condition that they made the negro citizens with right to vote, so that they voted the Republican ticket.

It will not be very long a time, when the Hun and negro of our valley will be supplemented with Philippines and Malays, and others, new citizens of Republican provinces. What need we care? We smart fellows in the gang. The old men who have worked hard and saved money will be given back seats. The new men, the Nigger, the Hun, the Philippine will run the affairs of Hocking county.

But it only serves us right. Hocking county counted and established an industrial leprosy. We warned a snake on our political hearth. We have had the bite, the poison still rankles.

Our Senatorial Candidate.

Lancaster Democrat.

Hon. O. H. Lambert, our candidate for state senator made us a friendly call Saturday.

The Dr. realizes what is to be overcome in the 9th-14th district, but he is a born warrior and intends to make a vigorous fight.

He believes that Fairfield Democrats will see that his battle is vigorously fought in this county.

Dr. Lambert is above medium size and well proportioned, good looking, a free and easy conversationalist and will make friends wherever he goes.

FRANK P. MARTIN of Hocking county, Democratic candidate for Representative, attended the County Convention here last Saturday and made a very favorable impression on all who met him. He addressed the convention in the afternoon. While a farmer and not claiming to be a great public speaker he delivered a good, solid, sensible, plain speech which pleased all who heard it. Mr. Martin is a successful farmer and business man and stands very highly where he is known.—McArthur Enquirer.

The boasted Republican majority in Ward township is made up mostly from imported Nigs and Huns. On a fair vote of the white and civilized citizens, the town of Murry and the township of Ward are democratic.

If the Pennsylvania strike continues the chances are that Ward will be in control of men who build the school-houses churches and subscribe and read and pay for the Murry City News, which at this time, as Mr. Clatfield declares, is mostly sustained by people living out of the town, and not voting citizens of Ward.

The work on the new well at the water works is progressing, and under the management of Mr. Mank, Logan will soon have a supply of water for any emergency.

A Part of Their Business.

The Murry City News mentions this.

Quite a number of Hungarians are leaving this section and locating in Pennsylvania. This will hardly cut the Republican vote. Brother Green for the township is full of Republicans, and more are coming.

The Hungarians and Niggers were brought to the Hocking Valley to break a strike.

As the Logan Journal Gazette truthfully says "they understand their business." They have departed to Pennsylvania to break a strike there.

They will, or their likes will come to our Valley again when "Business" calls them.

Banker Moore for Lawmaker.

Banker Moore of Athens, candidate on the John White-Alex Sand-ticket for Senator, is president of the Gun club, an organization that prowls the country, shooting game, and trespassing on the farmer's property for the fun of it. It is but reasonable to conclude that if Banker Moore, president of this hunting crowd, be elected, which saints and ministers forbid, that he will have a law passed, giving especial privilege to sporting men to race over farms at pleasure and shoot any thing that affords fun to kill.

Let Banker Moore issue his card and deny that he will not favor laws in the interests of the sporting club, of which he is president.

A Horrible Cutting Affray.

In the northeastern part of Hocking county, at a point closer to Buena Vista than South Perry, lies Benjamin Lutz, a young man, just at the point of death, and as the doctors state, with no telling how long he can live, but die he must. He was horribly cut and his body terribly mutilated with a dirk, which was held in the hands of a neighbor, whose name is William Shuck.

Two other young fellows by the name of John Watt and Henry Bigham had engaged in a free fight on Saturday evening, and in this affray Shuck had championed the cause of Watt. Bigham was a cousin of Lutz, and Lutz did not take well to Shuck's interferences.

The entire party was at church on Sunday night, the next following night, and on their way home and in front of West Bigham's gate, Lutz stopped Shuck and asked him why he "nosed" into the affair. Shuck answer was all but kindly and respectful. This started the two men together. Lutz was much the better man of the two, but in less time than it takes to read this, he was horribly slashed with a knife that Shuck had in his hands. With a terrible cut through one of his lungs and a great slash over the back and shoulder, and another on the arm and face, Lutz, notwithstanding his wounds, knocked the cuttist down, time and again. Until the great loss of blood caused him to succumb. While Shuck used the knife at every opportunity, with telling effect. He was carried to a relatives house nearby, and doctors summoned, who sewed up the wounds and gave the man as much relief as possible. They say, however, and so testified at the preliminary held Tuesday afternoon, that Lutz could not live.

Attorney Ricketts of Laureville was employed to prosecute the cuttist, and Attorney Dollison of Lancaster, defended the prisoner at the preliminary held Tuesday afternoon. Notwithstanding a strong plea of defense put up for the prisoner, Ricketts won out and had Shuck placed under a six hundred dollar bond for his appearance before the next grand jury that sets in Hocking county.—Adelphia News.

The Peach Crop of Hocking County.

Our readers out in the hills, who have but a few peach trees, planted in fence corners, or in patches over which stock have free range, have but a small appreciation of the immense crop gathered every day, and going out on trains every night.

The Hocking Valley road for the last ten days, and for ten more perhaps, have been taking out eight and nine cars of peaches, two thousand baskets of half a bushel measure in every car.

The peaches are gathered in the orchards south of us, mostly by women and children. They are hauled to the convenient rail road station, placed in cold storage until the arrival of the train. Quick hands load them. At Logan a train is made up which runs at express speed. The fruit is carried mostly in refrigerating cars to Chicago, on a run from Logan of about 12 hours.

Swift and Co., the great meat packing house of Chicago have bought most of the crop of the great orchards, propose keeping most of the peaches until in the winter.

Peaches are selling in small lots along the line of the road at from 40 to 50 cents a basket. Car lots are sold in Cincinnati and Chicago at 30 and 35 cents a basket.

The yield of the De orchard and a number of others will be not less than $500,000 to the acre.

It is estimated that the peach crop of Athens county will amount to over one hundred thousand dollars and that the Hocking Valley will carry to the Chicago and northern markets not less than one hundred thousand baskets.

The peach crop of the Hocking Valley is next in its value to our coal product.
